

IISL/ECSL Symposium at LSC
28 March 2011, 15h-18h
PROGRAMME

A fresh look on the delimitation of airspace and outer space

Chairpersons:

Tanja Masson-Zwaan, President IISL

Sergio Marchisio, President ECSL

A short look back at a long debate

Catherine Doldirina, McGill University, Canada

An engineering look at delimitation in light of technological changes

Luboš Perek, Learned Society of the Czech Republic, Czech Republic

Are there indications for upper and lower limits for air space and outer space in air law, space law and national legislation?

Marco Pedrazzi, University of Milan, Italy

Legal implications for delimitation of airspace and outer space

Joanne Gabrynowicz, University of Mississippi, United States

Delimitation and the commercial use of outer space

Sang-Myon Rhee, Seoul National University, Republic of Korea

Delimitation as an element for rules of the road. A space traffic management regime

Jean-Francois Mayence, Belgian Science Policy Office, Belgium

Concluding remarks:

José Monserrat Filho, Chairman of the Working Group on Matters relating to the definition and delimitation of outer space of the UNCOPUOS Legal Subcommittee

Ahmad Talebzadeh, Chairman of the UNCOPUOS Legal Subcommittee

Coordinators of the Symposium:

Kai-Uwe Schrogl, (Board of Directors, IISL)

Joanne Gabrynowicz (Board of Directors, IISL), Corinne Jorgenson (Executive Secretary, IISL)

Raphael Milchberg (Executive Secretary, ECSL)